

Terran Society - Overview

Terran Society is a concept for a group of open minded people who want to create a genuinely better life with the necessary protections, and rights agreed to up front. Terran Society was formed in recognition of an unfilled need for a Human Centric system of social and economic organization in this world we call Terra (from the Latin).

We are Terrans and this is our Society.

Terran Society is about simple and fundamental knowledge leading to greater knowledge and understanding.

Our knowledge will be applied to improve and create technology for a better quality of life in harmony with this world and the life we share it with.

We want to develop technologies and methods for sustainable living with little or no negative environmental impact.

We will focus on detoxification, various healing therapies and clean food to promote a high quality of individual health.

Our architecture will utilize natural materials and processes for high ascetic quality and very low operation and maintenance costs.

An emphasis will be on domes, geodesic, in-ground and airborne structures.
There are two aspects to Terran Society, public and private.

Privately, Terran Society is a new social contract with the ultimate goal of all People of Terra becoming Members on a voluntary basis. This would effectively replace all existing governmental, legal and economic structures with our Human Centric civilization.

This may take some time, of course, but what may be achieved is great and beneficial for all People.

There are no real losers in this plan. Even oligarchs would gain with the benefits of living in an advanced civilization. Personal safety, very low crime rate, higher health services and longevity are examples. Expect the arts to surge to new heights. So much more to do, see and experience. Individual talent and creativity, which is so repressed world wide today, will be developed and flourish. New architecture, new materials, new technology, vast travel options, new ideas, new toys, games & devices; everyone benefits!

Our relationship as a species with the life we share this world with will be almost unimaginably good compared to now. Inter-species communication will surge with mutual benefit and learning.

Terran Society values the free flow of information. For instance, when you are a part of an organization that makes widgets, you will have a vote and access to organizational information, including financial. But that information is not shared with the outside world.

The concept of government is too much like mind and people control. If you break it down, what we really need and want is a really good system of management of public services, the public trust, a good system for dispute resolution and a common defense.

Terran Society will continue to evolve our social and economic structures from our founding documents. The economic system is not capitalism, socialism or communism and is really up to the legislative branch to deal with. These systems lead to or are designed to be top down, centralized control systems. This has an in-human effect on People and leads to repression and control of the many by a very few.

Terran Society is a de-centralized, open system made up of people in various leadership roles within a social structure designed to best facilitate a mutually beneficial, ever changing, dynamic, adaptive, human-centric civilization.

Our initial organizational documents are:

Fundamental Principals of Terran Society

These are core, guiding values as the spirit of law is more important than the letter of law.

Rights of the People

Living with respect for these Rights in others constitutes a practical code of conduct for peaceful coexistence.

Terran Society Constitution

Defines four parallel operational branches and local Councils of Elders.

These branches are:

- Executive
- Legislative
- Court System
- Fair Witness

This structure provides for authoritative roles delegated responsibility for effectiveness, yet prevents undue concentrations of power.

There are three tiers in this system.

- Council of Elders to serve communities and districts within larger metropolitan areas.
- Regional tier similar to a state, province or country;
- The planetary or Terran level similar to a federation;
